

LEARNER'S DIARY

15/10/2009

- arrival to Paris
- meeting of participants, introducing to each other
- dinner in typical French restaurant "LE PETIT BOFINGER" – tasty food, expensive wine and beer

16/10/2009

- first step of the kick-off meeting - introduction of partners orally
- presentation of our company on screen in PowerPoint
- distribution of small Czech presents to all partners
- orientation with our plans, aims and objectives
- evaluation of the meeting - good experience, success

- sightseeing of marvelous Paris (familiarization with history of France's capital city - Eiffel tower, Notre Dame, Arc de Triomphe, Champs Elyse'es, Place de la Concorde-Obelisk, etc.)

RESULT:

- I have been participated for the first time in EU project (no previous knowledge of the subject matter), new terms and concepts were understood unclearly
- other partners were more skilled in contents and professional English language
- irresponsibility, no unique English speaking language during the meeting (partners spoke German and French)
- I want to proceed in a better adaptation and overview (additional material, dictionary, ..)

17/10/2009

- workshop: border part of Paris – ST. DENIS (migrant's area with characteristic markets, restaurants, streets, people – Turkish, Jews, Indian, ..)
- lunch: typical Indian food – delicious (the dessert looked like a frog's eggs)
- continuing in sightseeing (Sacre Coeur, Louvre, Mouling Rouge)

18/10/2009

- departure
